

The logo is a circular emblem. At the top, the text "Américaines du Sud" is written in a stylized font, with "Américaines" in red and "du Sud" in black. Below this, two flags are crossed: the French Republic flag (red, white, and blue) on the left and the United States flag (stars and stripes) on the right. In the center is a red classic convertible car, likely a 1950s Ford, with a license plate that reads "AMERICA CLUB". At the bottom, the word "AmériSud" is written in a large, stylized font, with "Améri" in red and "Sud" in yellow. The entire logo is set against a white background.
